Company Charges and Procedures

Why sell with Donnelly Auctions? Our Company was established in 1972 and we have a professional team of valuers ready to assist for all your valuation and selling requirements. We conduct antique and collectors' auctions on a Sunday every month on average and now we are 100% online auctions only, making it easy to follow and watch your own items and see the live bidding take place. This has also helped generate better prices as buyers can bid directly. With over 10,000 buyers following our auctions via social media and direct marketing. All items are sold as best we can at fair market value, payment is 10 working days after the auction into your nominated bank account and a full itemized sales statement is emailed to you. Auctions are effective and simple with a strong buying crowd and if items are unusual or desirable our buyers will bid it up. We advertise extensively online, Eastern States, globally at times and throughout traditional methods such as newspapers. We are Perth's leading Online Auction specialists.

With over 45 years of experience in the industry Donnelly Auctions are your trusted auctioneers you will be pleasantly surprised by our results.

We charge 22% commission and a one off $5 handling fee for the entire consignment which are deducted from your sales results. We will require your details to complete our booking in process and these can be provided on the "BOOKING IN FORM", your account information is also required so we can pay into this nominated account. Please note all services attract 10% GST.

PACKING

We have a qualified packing team and you can also arrange bookings to have homes, estates or private entries packed and can provide packing materials, boxes, tapes etc at Donnelly's cost. We can also sell the same products to assist you in packing at home in your own time. Please be aware that when packing do not overwrap items, do not use additional padding outside or inside items or tape over items a single piece of white packing paper is sufficient. Boxes should not be over packed or too heavy and weighted items at the base of boxes with lighter items on top. Excess packing will incur rubbish removal costs.
